

Kristin Rebecca

Kristin has been called a musical goddess due to her captivating performance style which combines her powerful, angelic voice, unique guitar rhythms and rare harp ability into a show unlike any other. Her songs tell personal expressions, wider observations, narrative commentary and thoughtful reflections – each evoking timeless a narrative to pull you into the stories. She is an award-winning musician and is an actively touring artist who consistently performs over 200 shows a year.